

BRECKENRIDGE NEWS.

To the Members of the Methodist Church, Cloverport, Ky.

The editor of the "News" is drawing to a close, has been one of the pleasant years of my ministry, and I trust has been without profit to both pastor and people. There is one feature that has been encouraging, we have had good attendance upon the Sunday services. The church has been repaired, at a cost of $300.25, every dollar of which has been paid in. We have twenty additions to the church this year, but we have lost five by death and three by certificate, leaving a net gain of seventeen.

While the spiritual state of the church is not what it should be, still I think we are on plain ground.

The school year is a success.

I don't know that the members of the church all attend, but that the school has kept up in interest. Our superintendent deserved as faithfully and acceptably, and is the right man in the right place.

The music has been good all the year, we are indebted to the pastor for his services, the people largely interested in the services. The leaders of the choir have been faithful and prompt, and the whole church is under obligations to them, but especially to our organist, who has not only been untiring in her efforts to practice the choir members, but has not missed a Sunday service this year.

My Board of Stewards have my thanks for faithfulness and the business-like way in which they have kept the financial interests of the church. Every dollar of my claim will be paid.

The amount of money raised this year for missionary and other benevolences, will be in advance of what we paid last year.

I want to return thanks for the kind ness and consideration that I have received at the hands of all; also to the editor of this paper for kindly and cheerfully publishing our church notice from me.

In conclusion, I want to say my congratulations to the pastor, he has been pleasant, and I trust profitable to all. The congregation there is much larger than it was when I came. They have also worked up a good Sunday-school.

Let us pray that God may continue to send the church prosperity.
